COURSE OBJECTIVE

This course builds upon material covered in Commerce 2MA3 - Introduction to Marketing. It relies on practical, real world case studies to develop your marketing decision-making skills, and your ability to analyse the business environment in which organisations operate. A major field project, which has student teams working with businesses to audit current practices, study the environment and develop a marketing plan, is a critical part of this course.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The purpose of this course is to explore practical applications of marketing concepts in business situations. Case studies are used to give practice in analyzing opportunities, solving marketing issues, and preparing implementation plans. This course is taught primarily through the case-method and an industry project but might also include readings, lectures, videos, and workshop

LEARNING OUTCOMES

The course will help you to:
1) Understand the application of basic marketing concepts;
2) Develop basic skills in marketing analysis, decision making and strategy formulation;
3) Test your skills in communicating analysis, conclusions, and recommendations; and
4) Understand the environmental, global, and ethical dimensions of marketing decision making given the dynamics of business markets and customer needs.

A. CLASS PARTICIPATION AND CONTRIBUTION (20%)

It is our belief that highly interactive environments are the breeding grounds for excellence in stimulating idea generation, enhancing communication skills, improving analytical processes, fostering collaborative networks, testing assumptions, and having fun! This is also the time and place to develop the assertiveness and communication skills that are necessary for success in business. Consequently, we value and reward contribution. For our marketing class, contribution relates to:

- Being prepared for class discussion – demonstrate good knowledge of case content;
- Offering case analysis in a critical and constructive manner;
- Eager / willing to debate issues using logic and integrating knowledge of basic marketing concepts; Listen and react to comments made by other students
- Your ability to communicate clearly (i.e., quantity of dialogue is not the same as quality);
- Demonstrate initiative to bring new and relevant knowledge to case / class discussion

Interim participation marks will be posted about half way through the course. NO marks are awarded for attendance. Absence from class is a serious matter, since you obviously cannot participate if you are not there. If there are legitimate reasons for you to miss class, you need to provide documentation within one week of returning to school to the Academic Programs Office.

The key to high contribution grades is making a quality contribution to every class. Marks will be awarded on both quality and consistency. Typical expectations are – at least two analytical comments per case discussion (an example would be arguing SWOT with a correct ‘So What’) regurgitation of facts in the case is worth only half the marks.
GROUP WORK

Groups will consist of five people (some exceptions will be made by instructor given class numbers). All members should be attending the same section to facilitate the group activities planned in the first few weeks. Please complete the last page of this outline and hand it in by September 28th to Nicole in DSB 203 or to Prof. Malik in class.

80% of your mark in this course is teamwork so choose your fellow group members wisely. To encourage equal contribution, peer evaluation will be used to assess each member's work. Groups are encouraged to set some ground rules and expectations early in the term and to have a short feedback session following the completion of each assignment so that individuals are made aware if their input is less than expected by their team. An interim peer evaluation form (attached to this outline) is to be submitted in class on the day of final group process exercise and a final peer evaluation form will be submitted Friday December 7th, with the completed Marketing Plan. THESE TWO EVALUATIONS NEED ONLY BE SUBMITTED IF THE DISTRIBUTION IS NOT EQUAL, AND MUST BE SIGNED BY ALL IN THE PRESENCE OF THE TA / INSTRUCTOR OR A CONFIRMATION SENT BY EACH MEMBER USING THEIR MCMASTER EMAIL ACCOUNT. (If you fail to do so, the professor will assign your evaluation marks as per his discretion based on information at his disposal.)

The result of this process is a true reflection of each group members’ contribution to the project. Some members (i.e., those that contribute the most to the process) may find that their overall grade will go up as a result of the peer evaluation. NOTE: GRADES GO UP BY NO MORE THAN TWO GRADE POINTS PER STUDENT IF ACHIEVED SCORE IS B OR LOWER; IF YOUR ACHIEVED SCORE IS B+ OR HIGHER THE POSITIVE RATINGS CAN ONLY ADD ONE GRADE POINT TO YOUR MARKS IN THE COURSE. Others may find that their overall project grade will go down - NOTE: THE PEER EVALUATION PROCESS CAN IMPACT YOU NEGATIVELY WITH NO CAP ON THE GRADES YOU CAN DROP.

Past experience with groups has shown that most troubles arise because individuals do not respect the group process. The first group meeting should happen in the first two weeks. At this meeting, you might want to choose a coordinator who will facilitate the work. This is also a good time to set the parameters for group work such as: when the group will meet, attendance at group meetings including punctuality, and preliminary assignment of tasks. You should also make a calendar of all “good” and “bad” times for the group (i.e., when group members have commitments to work, tests, major assignments, social commitments, holidays, etc.). The worst thing you can do is surprise your group with a long-standing commitment at the last minute.

B. HAND-IN CASE (20%) – ‘GOOF PROOF BATTERY’ DUE OCTOBER 12TH AT 12 NOON

Your analysis should be no more than ten pages plus any appendices that you choose to include. Appendices consist of information that supports the body of your report but is too detailed or voluminous to include in the body. This is where any financial analysis, segmentation grids, decision matrices should be housed. Appendices must be referenced in the body of the report. The format of the hand-in case is detailed as follows:

| Title Page Table of Contents                 | • Title of case, date, Group Number and names / student numbers of team members

| Introduction and Problem/Issue Identification| • Answer the question “This case is about….” in one short, concise paragraph.
|                                              | • The focus may be on an evident marketing / business problem or an opportunity. Your perception of the problem may be different from that of “players” in the case. All following sections should be analysed in context of the problem |
| Marketing Audit                              | • Identification of current marketing practices i.e. details of 4P’s and Current Target Market / Segmentation Strategy. Also Current Positioning (if evident)
|                                              | • Some of the strategies may not be evident but can be inferred            |
| SWOT (Internal and External Analysis) –      | • Critical analysis of the firms key strengths and weaknesses – they are directly controllable by management. Should be taken only from the case and discussed using the “So what?” argument – giving the implication on the problem / challenge
| Worth about 40%                               | • Thorough analysis of external environment – identification of opportunities and threats given the Social / Cultural trends; Demographic Trends; Economic, Political, Legal or Technological Influences etc (focus only on what is presented in the case – do not undertake any external research). Use “So what?” to argue implications for firm or the problem at hand
|                                              | • Quantitative analysis of financial information (break evens, profitability etc) – identification of strengths and weaknesses in this context
|                                              | • Use one sub-heading for Strengths, one for Weaknesses, One for Opportunities and One for Threats
|                                              | • You may also find that several characteristics can be grouped. For instance you might suggest that a firm is innovative because a. it launches new products every year; invests in new technologies and invests significantly in R & D. Focus on SW or OT most important to problem and goals

C. MARKETING PLAN

Each group of students will work with a “client” who needs a marketing plan completed. We have identified a number of businesses that would like to work with a group to complete a plan. Students are also encouraged to develop their own leads.

Each team will make two presentations to the class. During the first presentation, the group will present background information about the client organization and its current marketing practices along with an overview on strengths and weaknesses. The final presentation will consist of current practices, SWOT and strategies – client should be invited. Besides these two presentations, you are required to submit a five page interim report to receive early feedback on the marketing audit completed for this client – case format guidelines will apply.

The two presentations will be made using the overhead projector or video /data projector available in class. Each presentation will be timed – you have a limit of 15 minutes for the first presentation (including discussion or Q & A) and 20 minutes for the final presentation (plus five minutes are kept aside for Q & A / discussion). All group members must participate in the presentation. The presentations and resulting discussion period are an opportunity for you to receive feedback from the entire class prior to either continuing with the marketing plan development or submitting the plan to the client and the professor.
Interim Report (10%): Due November 2nd at 12 noon in DSB 203

1. Company History – discuss milestones, also include organizational structure, details of education / training and business / other experience and expertise of owners, managers, etc identify employee strength; recognition received etc

2. Discuss Current Marketing Situation:
   a) Product - include lines, service elements, total SKU’s – best / worst sellers, sizes, packaging, store layout… IMPORTANT YOU MUST IDENTIFY: What customer need is fulfilled by this product / service? What are the decision process / decision criteria used by the customers?
   b) Price – provide ranges, comment on strategy, trends …
   c) Promotion - include detailed spend on each element – mass media, flyers, direct sales, direct mail etc attach examples in appendix
   d) Positioning (have a basis); IMPORTANT: ‘How is this product distinguishable?’ Discuss current branding: colours, logo, positioning statements
   e) Placement – address, map, surroundings, hours of operation, etc
   f) Target Market – Answer the questions: ‘Who is the Current Customer?’ Where is the customer coming from – geographically? How and why customers choose this product? When do they buy? How do they use this product?
   g) Segmentation – How is the market viewed, in terms of different segments, basis for segmentation?

3. Business Problem - Identify Quantitative Symptoms, discuss root cause, use theory; Business performance analysis is a critical component in arriving at problem – you will need to start work on the project quite early to accomplish this

4. Objectives Quantitative (desired) and / or Qualitative. For example – advertise using social media or move to new location are not objectives but tactics within a strategy

First Presentation (10%): Starting Week of October 22nd (See details in Interim Report)

1. Intro to Organization and structure; owner; team; business history; milestones;
2. Current Marketing Situation: 4P’s ; Current Customer Characteristics; Needs served;
3. NAICS / SIC code – market size and significant performance trends within industry
4. Business Problem / Challenge – Quantify; discuss root cause in marketing practices; use theory;
5. Business Objectives – Quantitative; clearly articulate basis
6. Internal Environment: Strengths and Weaknesses (higher weighting for marks)

Final Presentation (15%): Starting Week of November 19th

1. Intro to business, 4P’s, Business Problem and Business Objectives
2. Customer Needs and decision process. Discuss decision making unit and influences. Discuss sources of customer values; Key decision criteria; Unmet needs; Provide insights.
4. Nature of Competitive Environment – Primary / Secondary Competitors; Aggressiveness
5. Marketing Strategy Alternatives and Recommendation

Marketing Report (25%): Due by 12 noon in DSB 203 on December 7th

Students must submit a marketing plan that is well organised, well written, accurate, and complete in its analysis. Clarity and conciseness are important. First class plans contain: no grammatical errors, no spelling errors and no uncorrected typographical errors. PLEASE SUBMIT TWO SPIRAL BOUND COPIES. WE WILL KEEP ONE AND MAIL THE SECOND COPY TO THE BUSINESS.

The marketing plan written in this course is expected to have met the same high standards as a plan prepared for the management of a major company. Remember, these marketing plans are written to aid management in making a decision leading to the implementation of a particular strategy. The managers in question are familiar with the facts of the case and probably have an idea of the various alternatives that should be considered. Your marketing plan should not merely repeat existing knowledge. It should develop the information on opportunities and constraints in a manner that illustrates the depth of your understanding of the issues and reassures your reader that reasonable alternative strategies have been considered. It should convince the reader that the chosen solution is the appropriate one.

Providing the written plan is a very different task from the analysis that must precede it. In most instances, the same framework employed in your analysis cannot be used for your plan. The purpose of the framework for analysis was a problem solving structure while the purpose of your written plan is the communication of your results. Also, the marketing plan is written for a particular purpose and person. The style of presentation, language usage and organisation should be suitable for that purpose and person. Do not write the marketing plan to your instructor. Business writing differs from expositional, literary writing in that it is more action oriented and provides an account of an opinion or decision. Your marketing plan is not an essay or interpretative literary composition; its purpose is to inform and persuade. Students may find that they are required to assume a more reportorial, analytical, objective voice and style of writing.

1. DETAIL IS EXTREMELY IMPORTANT
2. REPORT TRENDS AND FORECASTS
3. LINK UP 4P’s TO SWOT, AND SOLUTIONS TO PROBLEMS USING SWOT

MARKETING PLAN STRUCTURE

The marketing plan has several sections. Detail is as follows.

TITLE PAGE

The first page is the title page and contains:

1. The name of the contact and organization including mailing address (centred on the page)
2. Team member names and student numbers, Group Number
3. Course and section number,
4. Instructor's name, and
5. The date.
LETTER OF COOPERATION
This letter must be obtained from the business, preferably on the company letterhead, and must confirm their willing participation in this process, and must acknowledge their awareness of the fact that the information they have shared will be used for case analysis in class and other academic purposes.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY
This should include:

1. A concise statement of the problem.
2. A short summary of the major points arising from your analysis.
3. The major recommendations from your analysis including projected outcomes

Executive summaries should be a synthesis of the marketing plan, not just a point form version of the plan. The reader should be able to read this alone, and understand your analysis and decision. Thus, you cannot introduce new information into the Executive Summary. An Executive Summary is good practice for business marketing plans and the ability to summarise material is a skill that students must develop. The reader may find that the information contained in the summary section of the marketing plan is sufficient, or if he/she decides to read the complete marketing plan, find that the summary is preparation for the analysis that follows. The Executive Summary may be single-spaced. If the summary is longer than one page in length, it is too long.

COMPANY INTRODUCTION
The introduction prepares your reader for what is to follow. The introduction should begin with a backgrounder on the company, its owners, their goals and objectives, the industry sector classification etc. It should be no longer than one page.

MARKETING AUDIT
Offers full detail on the 4P’s, market needs served, current target market and current positioning. Gives an insight into performance in different sectors, over time periods and highlights trends. ALL current marketing practices are detailed in this section but not critiqued.

PROBLEM IDENTIFICATION
A formal problem statement is useful in furnishing your reader with some insight into your marketing plan. Be specific. Do not define or state a problem in vague terms or alternative courses of action. USE FACTS.

Make sure that you clearly and explicitly outline the problem. Don't confuse symptoms with the underlying problem. Ask yourself “why?” after each problem statement that you generate; this should help in determining the underlying issue. For example, a weak problem statement would be “Market share is going down”. A better version will tell the reader the rate of decline, compare it to previous years and to industry trends. Importantly, there could be many reasons why market share is going down, and thus many possible solutions – most of which will not be effective unless you know why market share is going down. Thus declining market share is a symptom of an underlying problem and if you can correctly identify this problem half the battle is won. Do not state the problem as choosing from between a number of alternative strategies.

INTERNAL / EXTERNAL ANALYSIS
Marketing plans usually include some sort of “Situation Analysis” where external (e.g., industry, competition, customers, category, and environment) and internal analyses are performed. It is important that you don't merely regurgitate the facts of the case in this section. The reader is only concerned with strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats (SWOT analysis) that have implications for the problem or for the solution of the problem. You must comment on the implications of all of the strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats that you mention. The marketing plan reader shouldn't have to ask “So what?” after each point is raised.

This section should be the bulk of your report and must include an estimate / analysis on size of market, discuss industry trends, use secondary research to highlight demand forecasts (for example: online purchases by Canadians are expected to exceed $24 billion by 2006 …reference). All opportunities and threats must be accounted for under the headings – Social / Cultural Factors, Demographic Trends, Economic and Business Conditions, Political, Legal and Technological Issues, Primary / Secondary Competition (identify the 4P’s for each of your major competitors; focus on in depth analysis on the real threats do not create a list of all possible competitors). You must offer a sound perspective on the marketing practices and strengths/weaknesses of two major competitors.

REMEMBER A LOT OF SMALL BUSINESS OWNERS ARE WORKING WITH “GUT FEEL”. IT IS OUR RESPONSIBILITY TO EXPOSE THEM TO THE “FACTS” IN THE MARKETING ENVIRONMENT, FOR THEIR PRODUCT OR SERVICE. THEREFORE FOCUS ON IDENTIFYING TRENDS AND DEVELOPING FORECASTS. GRAPH YOUR INFORMATION – USE PICTURES AND SAVE ON WORDS.

OBJECTIVES
This part of the marketing plan will include a list of specific and measurable business objectives (quantitative and/or qualitative) - and criteria by which to evaluate your alternative solutions. It is important to provide clear rationale for your goals.

STRATEGY ALTERNATIVES & RECOMMENDATION
This part of the marketing plan will include a discussion of two possible alternative solutions to the problem. When you discuss alternative solutions to the problem, keep in mind that your alternatives should solve the problems as stated at the beginning of your analysis. Make sure that you discuss changes in the marketing mix commenting on each of the 4P’s, the target segment(s), positioning, outcomes and pros and cons of each alternative. Make sure you assess each alternative against your decision criteria. Remember, the alternatives must fit with the current resources of the organisation. They must also use the SWOT.

The marketing strategy you recommend must be justified. The logic of your selection of one alternative course of action over the others must be apparent. The decision must fit with the objectives, strategy and resources of the organisation. The decision must be feasible given the competitive environment. Discuss to whom are you selling and how will you distinguish your product from competition or talk about the competitive advantages your chosen strategy will provide. If you are planning on targeting multiple segments, how will you reconcile the fact that these segments may require different positioning approaches and/or different marketing mixes? Please comment on likely competitor reaction to your strategy.

IMPLEMENTATION AND CONTROLS
Include a guide for implementation. List specific action steps and include a time line. Indicate who is responsible for each step. Outline the controls that will be used to monitor progress and allow higher management to review implementation results.

BUDGET
Provide documentation to support costing on each strategy for example – include printing quotes, advertising rates etc. Also include supporting notes / financial justification for the recommended strategy. Growth projections based on the implementation of the recommended strategy must be included - it shows the “bottom-line” of the decision. Include worst/probable/best case scenarios. Ensure that the time period in your implementation match the time considerations in your objectives.

CONCLUSION
The report should include a brief conclusion, summarizing how the solution best solves the problem identified at the beginning of the report.

REPORT FORMAT GUIDELINES
Please conform to the following:

1. Marketing plans should use readable fonts and numbered pages. Font size for the marketing plan body should not be smaller than 12 point. Left / right margins must be no smaller than 1 inch each.
2. Papers should be double-spaced and printed on one side of the paper only. The Executive Summary may be single-spaced.
3. The body of the report is not to exceed 35 pages. Import all industry trend findings and reference graphs into the main body of the report. This page limit does not include the title page, table of contents, bibliography or other appropriate appendices. Marketing plans exceeding the 35-page limit will be penalised 10 percent per page for every page past the limit.

ACADEMIC DISHONESTY

It is the student’s responsibility to understand what constitutes academic dishonesty. Please refer to the University Senate Academic Integrity Policy at the following URL:

http://www.mcmaster.ca/policy/Students-AcademicStudies/AcademicIntegrity.pdf

This policy describes the responsibilities, procedures, and guidelines for students and faculty should a case of academic dishonesty arise. Academic dishonesty is defined as to knowingly act or fail to act in a way that results or could result in unearned academic credit or advantage. Please refer to the policy for a list of examples. The policy also provides faculty with procedures to follow in cases of academic dishonesty as well as general guidelines for penalties. For further information related to the policy, please refer to the Office of Academic Integrity at:

http://www.mcmaster.ca/academicintegrity

REQUESTING RELIEF FOR MISSED ACADEMIC WORK

1. Students may request relief from a regularly scheduled midterm, test, assignment or other course component in the following two ways:

   a) for absences from classes lasting up to five (5) days; or

   b) for absences from classes lasting more than five (5) days.

   a) For absences from classes lasting up to five (5) days
   Students must use the MSAF (McMaster Student Absence Form). This is an on-line, self-reporting tool, for which submission of medical or other types of supporting documentation is normally not required. Students may use this tool to submit a maximum of one (1) request for relief of missed academic work per term as long as the weighting of the component is worth 29% of the final grade or less. Students must follow up with their course instructors regarding the nature of the relief within two days of submitting the form. Failure to do so may negate the opportunity for relief. It is the prerogative of the instructor of the course to determine the appropriate relief for missed term work in his/her course.

   If the value of the component is worth 30% or more, students must report to the APO to discuss their situation and will be required to provide appropriate supporting documentation.

   b) For absences from classes lasting more than five (5) days
   Students cannot use the MSAF. They MUST report to the APO to discuss their situation and will be required to provide appropriate supporting documentation.

   Students who wish to submit more than one request for relief of missed academic work per term cannot use the MSAF. They must report to the APO and discuss their situation with an academic advisor. They will be required to provide supporting documentation and meet with the Director.

   The MSAF cannot be used during any final examination period.

   Students who require accommodations to meet a religious obligation or to celebrate an important religious holiday must make their requests in writing within three weeks of the start of term to the APO.

   Students seeking relief due to: work-related (for part-time students only) commitments; representing the university at an academic or varsity athletic event; and/or conflicts between two (or more) overlapping scheduled midterm exams, have the option of applying for special exam arrangements. Such requests must be made to the APO at least ten (10) working days before the scheduled exam along with acceptable documentation. There will be only one common sitting for the special exam. Instructors cannot themselves allow students to unofficially write make-up exams/tests. Adjudication of the request must be handled by the APO.

STUDENT ACCESSIBILITY SERVICES

Student Accessibility Services (SAS) offers various support services for students with disabilities. Students are required to inform SAS of accommodation needs for course work at the outset of term. Students must forward a copy of such SAS accommodation to the instructor normally, within the first three (3) weeks of classes by setting up an appointment with the instructor. If a student with a disability chooses NOT to take advantage of an SAS accommodation and chooses to sit for a regular exam, a petition for relief may not be filed after the examination is complete. The SAS website is:

http://sas.mcmaster.ca

POTENTIAL MODIFICATIONS TO THE COURSE

The instructor and university reserve the right to modify elements of the course during the term. The university may change the dates and deadlines for any or all courses in extreme circumstances. If either type of modification becomes necessary, reasonable notice and communication with the students will be given with explanation and the opportunity to comment on changes. It is the responsibility of the student to check their McMaster email and course websites weekly during the term and to note any changes.

RESEARCH USING HUMAN SUBJECTS

Research involving human participants is premised on a fundamental moral commitment to advancing human welfare, knowledge and understanding. As a research intensive institution, McMaster University shares this commitment in its promotion of responsible research. The fundamental imperative of research involving human participation is respect for human dignity and well-being. To this end, the University endorses the ethical principles cited in the Tri-Council Policy Statement: Ethical Conduct for Research Involving Humans:

http://www.pre.ethics.gc.ca

McMaster University has mandated its Research Ethics Boards to ensure that all research investigations involving human participants are in compliance with the Tri-Council Policy Statement. The University is committed, through its Research Ethics Boards, to assisting the research community in identifying and addressing ethical issues inherent in research, recognizing that all members of the University share a commitment to maintaining the highest possible standards in research involving humans.

If you are conducting original research, it is vital that you behave in an ethical manner. For example, everyone you speak to must be made aware of your reasons for eliciting their responses and consent to providing information. Furthermore, you must ensure everyone understands that participation is entirely voluntary. Please refer to the following website for more information about McMaster University’s research ethics guidelines:

http://reo.mcmaster.ca/

Organizations that you are working with are likely to prefer that some information be treated as confidential. Ensure that you clarify the status of all information that you receive from your client. You MUST respect this request and cannot present this information in class or communicate it in any form, nor can you discuss it outside your group. Furthermore, you must continue to respect this confidentiality even after the course is over.

A NOTE ON GRADING

The evaluation to determine a grade is based on the quality of the submission. There is a bit of subjectivity in this evaluation as with most evaluations in social sciences; however, our experience indicates that there is a "standard" answer that defines the relevant concepts, makes a logical argument, and uses relevant examples where required. For problem solving, the “standard” answer involves identifying the issues, analyzing the facts and making relevant recommendations. Generally, this type of submission demonstrates basic understanding of course material and deserves a B.

Submissions that demonstrate unique insights and provide a comprehensive understanding of the concepts/issues get rewarded accordingly with a B+, A-, A, A+. In determining the final grades, please keep in mind that submissions are evaluated absolutely and relatively. Reports are evaluated absolutely according to the requirements. Reports are also evaluated relative to one another to form a ranking from the best to the least best.

SUBMISSION DEADLINES

The following are the deadlines for submission of materials for this course. Late submissions will receive a ZERO. Viruses, printer problems, file or disc problems, traffic, weather, etc. are wonderful reasons why one should build “slack” into any project schedule. Successful businesses and business people plan to avoid or prevent these things.

EXAMPLES OF KEY CASE QUESTIONS AND RECOMMENDED READINGS

Dodsworth and Brown
1. Identify performance based problems being encountered. Consider size of market, market share, capacity etc.
2. Consider different segments, identify basis of segmentation, identify probable decision process / decision criteria and relate these to DB’s 4P’s
3. Critically review the sample advertisement and analyze it given 4P’s, current strengths, opportunities and customer segments / needs targeted.
Read the section on Market Segmentation and Consumer Behavior

Kettle Creek
1. Calculate value of kids clothing and accessories being sold at the store for which sales revenues are provided
2. Consider segments being targeted by KC and clearly articulate basis
3. Develop some thoughts on Strengths / Weaknesses for the three stores and owner
4. Critically review proposed strategies and develop your thoughts on creating demand for kids line; also make observations in context of the picture provided
Read the section on Market Segmentation, Consumer Behavior and Promotion Strategy

Limelight Cinema
1. Do the break even analysis (number of seats per show) on old price versus new price accounting for concessions, memberships sold, all costs etc. Assume minimum wage as $10 per hour; identify other assumptions and basis for each
2. Critically review the advertisements and overall current advertising strategy
3. Clearly identify weaknesses and threats given current / past 4P’s as well as company history, business ownership structure etc.
4. Think about risks / rewards associated with membership strategy.
5. Develop some feasible ideas for demand creation given SWOT
Read the section on Market Segmentation, Consumer Behavior and Promotion Strategy. Also research popular loyalty programs and identify their key characteristics

ED Smith
1. Based on information available calculate performance issues as well as potential number of flavors that may not be breaking even – provide rationale
2. What are the quantitative objectives you might set? Why?
3. Think about opportunities and threats given competition and private labeling. Identify other significant consumption trends and contextualize given current jam market.
4. What are the critical weaknesses that are contributing to sales decline?
5. Develop a short and long term strategies – think about changes to all 4P’s
Read up on Product and Pricing Strategy. Also look closely at the section on Marketing Strategy and Tactics to develop your ideas.

FINAL GROUP EVALUATION FORM
Please hand in with final paper.

INSTRUCTIONS:
1. Please assign each person in your group an amount of money which represents each individual's contribution to the project, simulation and hand-in cases. You may each wish to complete a form individually and then share these forms at a group meeting but only ONE FORM is to be submitted for each group and it must be signed by all group members.

2. Your total budget to distribute among the people in your group is $600 * (the number of people in your group). For example, if there are 5 people in your group, then pretend that you have $600 * 5 = $3,000 to pay to the group.

3. If everyone contributed equally, then pay each person $600.

4. Adjust the fee according to your honest personal assessment of the value of each person's contribution. Please attach documentation to support positive or negative peer evaluation – this should include dated records of early feedback given to team member(s).

5. The factor arrived at for each team member as a result of the peer evaluation will be applied to the group work in this course.

6. TREAT THIS EVALUATION SERIOUSLY. IT WILL IMPACT GRADES.

7. MAKE SURE THAT THE FEES PAID ADD TO $600 * GROUP SIZE.
