Required textbook: Fundamentals of Corporate Finance with access to Connect*, Eleventh (11th) Canadian Edition; Ross, Westerfield, Jordan, Pandes, Holloway; McGraw-Hill Ryerson, 2022.

You should have the book from your 2FA3 class. You will need access to Connect which will be used for graded weekly homework assignments.

COURSE OVERVIEW AND ASSESSMENT

This course will be delivered in physical classrooms. Besides the in-person classes held by the instructor, the course will also have the student TA holding weekly office hours. The TA office hours are optional for students to attend. The TA sessions will be used to answer student queries on the materials covered on a weekly basis, to go over the immediate-past weekly assignments, and to work on past exam problems from the topic of the week.

There will be ten weekly assignments (on Avenue), two midterm tests (4th October and 15th November) and a final exam (date TBA) for the course. Each weekly assignments on Avenue will have a specific open date (and time) and a specific due date (and time). The due dates for these assignments are not extended under any circumstances unless it is an issue of the instructor. Midterm tests and the final exams are closed book in-person tests. Students will be able to use help/cheat sheet during the midterm tests and the final exam. The final exam is cumulative, i.e., it will test students on ALL materials taught during the term.

Course evaluation: There are four different types of assessments for this course. The final student grade will be calculated as follows based on these:

EVALUATIONS	WEIGHT	DESCRIPTION	DUE	WHERE
Weekly assignments (x10)	1.5%*10 = 15%	Multiple choice questions, True/False	Wednesday 11:59 pm	Connect
Midterm test (x2)	25%*2 = 50%	Multiple choice questions and short word problems	Mid 1: Oct 4 (evening) Mid 2: Nov 15 (evening)	Location TBD
Final exam	35%	Forty-five Multiple choice questions	Exam week (Cumulative) 150 minutes	Date & Location TBD

Tutorial and Problem-Solving Sessions

There will be one weekly tutorial session and one problem solving session conducted by the TA. These sessions are optional for students to attend. In the tutorial session, the TA will answer your questions and go over two/three end-of-chapter problems for the materials covered for the week. In the problem-solving session, the TA will go over student questions in the immediately past Connect assignment. Both sessions will be held online, and the recorded sessions will be shared in the course Avenue page. The time and locations of these TA hours will be made available on the course Avenue page.

COURSE DELIVERABLES

Weekly homework (10 carrying 15%) – Connect

Every week a set of questions will be assigned on Connect. Students will complete these individually. These assignments will have deadlines – they will be opened every Thursday at 8:00 am and will be due the following Wednesday at 11:59 pm (Hamilton, ON time). Each of these assignments carry 1.5% of total grade.

Time extensions are not granted for the homework assignments under any circumstances. Missed weekly homework assignment will receive a grade of zero unless the student has submitted and been approved for a Notification of Absence or MSAF.

Midterm tests (2 carrying 50%):

There will be two midterm tests. Both will be closed books and notes, held in person and will run for two hours. Each test will have a combination of multiple choice questions (MCQs) and short word problems. The tests will be held during the evenings of 4th October and 15th November, respectively. These tests are non-cumulative. The course schedule at the end of this outline provides the coverage of these tests.

Missed tests/exams will receive a grade of zero unless the student has submitted and been approved for a Notification of Absence or MSAF.

At McMaster University, student learning in undergraduate courses should be assessed on more than one occasion. No single academic obligation (e.g., essay, test, examination, etc.) should have a value of more than 75% of the final grade without approval from the Department Chair or Associate Dean's Office. The two midterm tests in this course are each worth 25% of total grade. To this end, a student can request relief for one of the tests only (as approved by the Student Experience Office for coursework worth more than 24%). If a student needs to submit a request for missed coursework for both tests during the semester, s/he will have to communicate with the instructor so that an alternate arrangement can be made. The final exam marks will be reweighted in case of approved missed tests. Missed tests will not be eligible for 'curve' used for the test, if any.

Students are allowed to bring personal one-sided one-page help sheet for the test.

Final Exam (1 carrying 35%)

This exam will be cumulative. The final exam will comprise of forty-five (45) multiple-choice questions of different level of difficulty carrying different weights. The material tested on of final exam will include the material covered in class as well as the suggested end of chapter problems and weekly assignments. The exam will be scheduled by the registrar's office and take place during the finals week. The exam will be held in person. The duration of the final exam is 150 minutes (2 and a half hours).

Students are allowed to bring personal two-sided one-page help sheet for the test.

A student missing the final exam is subject to the policies and procedures outlined in the undergraduate Academic Calendar for missed final exams.

NOTE: Students can use any calculator (regular and financial) during all assessments in this course.

This behaviour can result in serious consequences, e.g. the grade of zero on an assignment, loss of credit with a notation on the transcript (notation reads: "Grade of F assigned for academic dishonesty"), and/or suspension or expulsion from the university. For information on the various types of academic dishonesty please refer to the Academic Integrity Policy.

The following illustrates only three forms of academic dishonesty:

- plagiarism, e.g. the submission of work that is not one's own or for which other credit has been obtained.
  - improper collaboration in group work.
  - copying or using unauthorized aids in tests and examinations.
