COURSE INFORMATION

Lectures: 3 hrs. per week

Course Delivery Mode: In-person

Course Description:

Central to the understanding of international financial management is the concept of exchange rate risks. We will study the economics underlying the determination of exchange rates and their parity relationships. We will discuss the foreign exchange markets and the tools that can be used to hedge exchange rate risks such as options, futures, and swaps contracts. We will also examine how the accounting and economic foreign exchange exposures can be effectively managed. This course is taught primarily through lectures, readings, in-class discussions, and assignments.

COURSE LEARNING OUTCOMES

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to complete the following key tasks:

- Explain the movements of foreign exchange rates based on different market variables;
- Identify arbitrage profit opportunities in the foreign exchange markets;
- Measure and manage accounting and economic foreign exchange exposures.

COURSE LEARNING GOALS

Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

- Appreciate the financial challenges and opportunities encountered by multinational corporations;
- Understand the economic determinants of foreign exchange rate and the role of the central bank in the foreign exchange and money markets;
- Recognize the relations among interest rate, inflation rate, and foreign exchange rate in the spot and futures markets; and
- Understand the differences between accounting and economic foreign exchange exposures.

REQUIRED MATERIALS AND TEXTS

Multinational Financial Management, 12th Edition, by Alan C. Shapiro, Paul Hanouna, and Atulya Sarin, John Wiley & Sons, 2024. You can access the Campus Store textbook link here. Further reading materials may be suggested by the instructor during the term. Slides and other teaching materials are available from Avenue to Learn. Students are encouraged to keep themselves up to date with current issues in international finance, as they may be discussed in class when appropriate. Students are also advised to practice on selected end-of-chapter questions/problems suggested by the instructor.

COURSE EVALUATION

The components of the course grade will be weighted as follows. The instructor reserves the right to modify the weightings to adjust for more or less material covered during the semester. Although there is no grade for class participation, your questions and/or comments are encouraged and appreciated.

Components and Weights

Assignment #1	Numerical and/or essays (group)	17.5%
Assignment #2	Numerical and/or essays (group)	17.5%
Mid-term exam	Exam (individual)	30%
Final exam	Exam (individual)	35%
Total		100%

NOTE: The use of a McMaster standard calculator is allowed during examinations on this course. See McMaster calculator policy at the following URL:

COURSE DELIVERABLES

Assignments

There are two assignments, each of which is worth 17.5% of the final grade. The assignments are made up of numerical questions and/or short essays that can be completed and submitted individually or with at most two other classmates. Physical copy of the assignment to be submitted by putting in the drop box in front of DSB 303 before the due date/time.

Mid-Term Exam

Mid-term exam to be completed individually. It consists of multiple-choice questions, numerical questions, and/or short essays.

Final Exam

Final exam is cumulative and to be completed individually. It consists of multiple-choice questions, numerical questions, and/or short essays.

LATE ASSIGNMENTS

Missed exams and late assignments will receive a grade of zero unless the student has submitted and been approved for a Notification of Absence or MSAF.

COMMUNICATION AND FEEDBACK

Students who wish to correspond with instructors or TAs directly via email must send messages that originate from their official McMaster University email account. This protects the confidentiality and sensitivity of information as well as confirms the identity of the student. Emails regarding course issues should NOT be sent to the Area Administrative Assistants.

Students who have concerns about the course content, evaluation methods, or delivery should first reach out to the course instructor. If your concern remains unresolved after speaking with the instructor, you may then reach out to the relevant Area Chair for further consideration.

REQUESTING RELIEF FOR MISSED ACADEMIC WORK

In the event of an absence for medical or other reasons, students should review and follow the Academic Regulation in the Undergraduate Calendar “Requests for Relief for Missed Academic Term Work” and the link below;

<http://ug.degroote.mcmaster.ca/forms-and-resources/missed-course-work-policy/>

* Non-Commerce students must follow the Missed Course Work protocols outlined by their home faculty and Program Office.

COURSE MODIFICATION

From time to time there may be a need to remove/add topics or to change the schedule or the delivery format. If these are necessary, you will be given as much advance notice as possible.

GENERATIVE AI

Students are not permitted to use generative AI in this course. In alignment with McMaster academic integrity policy, it “shall be an offence knowingly to ... submit academic work for assessment that was purchased or acquired from another source”. This includes work created by generative AI tools. Also state in the policy is the following, “Contract Cheating is the act of “outsourcing of student work to third parties” (Lancaster & Clarke, 2016, p. 639) with or without payment.” Using Generative AI tools is a form of contract cheating. Charges of academic dishonesty will be brought forward to the Office of Academic Integrity.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

You are expected to exhibit honesty and use ethical behaviour in all aspects of the learning process. Academic credentials you earn are rooted in principles of honesty and academic integrity. It is your responsibility to understand what constitutes academic dishonesty.

Academic dishonesty is to knowingly act or fail to act in a way that results or could result in unearned academic credit or advantage. This behaviour can result in serious consequences, e.g., the grade of zero on an assignment, loss of credit with a notation on the transcript (notation reads: “Grade of F assigned for academic dishonesty”), and/or suspension or expulsion from the university.

For information on the various types of academic dishonesty please refer to the Academic Integrity Policy.

The following illustrates only three forms of academic dishonesty:

- plagiarism, e.g., the submission of work that is not one’s own or for which other credit has been obtained.
- improper collaboration in group work.
- copying or using unauthorized aids in tests and examinations.

COURSES WITH AN ON-LINE ELEMENT

This course uses on-line elements (e.g., e-mail, Avenue to Learn (A2L), Zoom, Microsoft Teams, LearnLink, web pages, capa, Moodle, or ThinkingCap, etc.). Students should be aware that, when they access the electronic components of a course using these elements, private information such as first and last names, user names for the McMaster e-mail accounts, and program affiliation may become apparent to all other students in the same course.

The available information is dependent on the technology used. Continuation in a course that uses on-line elements will be deemed consent to this disclosure. If you have any questions or concerns about such disclosure please discuss this with the course instructor.

ONLINE PROCTORING

This course may use online proctoring software for tests and exams. This software may require students to turn on their video camera, present identification, monitor and record their computer activities, and/or lock/restrict their browser or other applications/software during tests or exams. This software may be required to be installed before the test/exam begins.

CONDUCT EXPECTATIONS

As a McMaster student, you have the right to experience, and the responsibility to demonstrate, respectful and dignified interactions within all of our living, learning and working communities. These expectations are described in the Code of Student Rights & Responsibilities (the “Code”). All students share the responsibility of maintaining a positive environment for the academic and personal growth of all McMaster community members, whether in person or online.

It is essential that students be mindful of their interactions online, as the Code remains in effect in virtual learning environments. The Code applies to any interactions that adversely affect, disrupt, or interfere with reasonable participation in University activities. Student disruptions or behaviours that interfere with university functions on online platforms (e.g. use of Avenue 2 Learn, WebEx or Zoom for delivery), will be taken very seriously and will be investigated. Outcomes may include restriction or removal of the involved students’ access to these platforms.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION OF STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Students with disabilities who require academic accommodation must contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS) at 905-525-9140 ext. 28652 or sas@mcmaster.ca to make arrangements with a Program Coordinator. For further information, consult McMaster University's Academic Accommodation of Students with Disabilities policy.

ACADEMIC ACCOMMODATION FOR RELIGIOUS, INDIGENOUS OR SPIRITUAL OBSERVANCES (RISO)

Students requiring academic accommodation based on religious, indigenous or spiritual observances should follow the procedures set out in the RISO policy. Students should submit their request to their Faculty Office normally within 10 working days of the beginning of term in which they anticipate a need for accommodation or to the Registrar's Office prior to their examinations. Students should also contact their instructors as soon as possible to make alternative arrangements for classes, assignments, and tests.

COPYRIGHT AND RECORDING

Students are advised that lectures, demonstrations, performances, and any other course material provided by an instructor include copyright protected works. The Copyright Act and copyright law protect every original literary, dramatic, musical and artistic work, including lectures by University instructors.

The recording of lectures, tutorials, or other methods of instruction may occur during a course. Recording may be done by either the instructor for the purpose of authorized distribution, or by a student for the purpose of personal study. Students should be aware that their voice and/or image may be recorded by others during the class. Please speak with the instructor if this is a concern for you.

EXTREME CIRCUMSTANCES

The University reserves the right to change the dates and deadlines for any or all courses in extreme circumstances (e.g., severe weather, labour disruptions, etc.). Changes will be communicated through regular McMaster communication channels, such as McMaster Daily News, Avenue to Learn and/or McMaster email.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COURSE POLICIES

Your enrolment in Commerce 3FC3 will be considered to be an implicit acknowledgement of the course policies outlined above, or of any other that may be announced during lecture and/or on A2L. It is your responsibility to read this course outline, to familiarize yourself with the course policies and to act accordingly.

Lack of awareness of the course policies cannot be invoked at any point during this course for failure to meet them. It is your responsibility to ask for clarification on any policies that you do not understand.
